ETHICS FOR THE NEW MILLENIUM: HIS HOLINESS THE 14TH DALAI LAMA

In this intimate talk at the Royal Albert Hall in London before 5,000 people, the Dalai Lama speaks of the need for an inner transformation as a pre-requisite to a new and transformed outer world in the coming millennium. With warmth, directness and good humor, he urges us to link individual happiness to an ethical vision of the world; a world in which we care about others. Adopting an approach that blends realism and optimism, he recommends ways in which each of us can begin to make inner changes that will affect these problems.

In English and Tibetan.

FROM JESUS TO CHRIST: THE FIRST CHRISTIANS

4 videocassettes.

Narrator: Will Lyman.

Explores the life of Jesus and the movement he started, challenging familiar assumptions and conventional notions about the origins of Christianity. Drawing upon new and sometimes controversial historical evidence and interviews with the nation's leading New Testament scholars, the series transports the viewer back 2000 years to the time and place where Jesus once lived and preached. Traces Jesus' life, focusing on the events that occurred after he died and on his first followers, the men and women whose belief, conviction, and martyrdom created a major movement that transformed the Roman Empire in the space of only 300 years.

INSIDE ISLAM

Narrator: Keith David.

It is the second largest religion in the world. Its name is derived from the word for peace, yet to many Westerners, it is synonymous with violence and terror. Widely practiced and equally widely misunderstood, Islam is a religion that has been at the heart of human experience for well over a thousand years. In the world after September 11th, it is especially critical to understand the origins and practice of Islam, and its role in the world today. This balanced, objective introduction to the great faith traces its roots back to the Hebrew Bible and explains the main tenets of Islam, the Five Pillars that all Muslims must adhere to. Discover what the Qur'an has to say about war, violence and suicide, and see how these words have been co-opted by extremists.
