

Who are the Friends? What do they do?

The mission of the Friends of the Wheaton Public Library is to promote public use and community support for the library, to foster appreciation of its value as a cultural and educational asset to the community, and to focus public attention on the resources, services, facilities and needs of the library.

Friends membership dues and donations are used to enhance and promote library resources and services.

Examples include:

- Special adult and children's programs
- Prizes for summer reading programs
- Sunday/Summer Music Sampler
- Library materials & equipment
- Fireplace in new reading room

Friends:

- Voice their support for libraries
- Publicize library services and activities
- Sponsor and volunteer at special events
- Sponsor fund-raising activities

Why Should You Join?

-  To help keep the Wheaton Public Library a top U.S. Library
-  To work with a group of people who believe in the value of reading, and want their community to have access to good books, AV materials, information resources, and all that a modern library has to offer.
-  To derive personal satisfaction from being an active member of this worthwhile organization.
-  To participate in meetings and Friends activities and find out what's going on in the library world.
-  To work on the Friends annual book sale.

Your efforts are needed and will be greatly appreciated by all who love the library.

The Friends of the Wheaton Public Library is a tax exempt, non-profit organization.

Friends of the Wheaton Public Library is a new organization formed in 2003 by interested residents. Anybody can join.

Friends is administered by a Board of Directors elected annually by the members of the organization.
Standing and special committees of members carry out the activities of the Friends.

Join us now as we plan future
events and activities,
form committees,
and work to make our expanded library even better.
