Benefiting Wheaton's Heritage & the Center for History

Honoring
Three Wheaton Boys

Joseph Knippen
Harold Muehlfelt
Lewis V. Morgan Jr.

Wheaton was established in the 1830s and developed into the County Seat because of the efforts and talent of individuals who settled here. Generations of families have resided in Wheaton and helped build the fine community we have today. The names of the 41 Wheaton Legends represent only a few of those who contributed to the growth of our city. The Center for History is proud to recognize these men and women.
